Beginning - Interviews with the Developers Elden Ring: The Beginning
- Interviews with the Developers Q: How did you develop the basic gameplay? This game is from the concept of 'Big Damn Hero'. We want to attract the attention of gamers who enjoy the action RPG genre, which is said to be the genre in which titles are regarded by the mass audience first. In order to do that, we decided to add action game elements like quick attacks and dodge skills to the worlds and dungeons we have created. Q: What is an Elden Ring? An Elden Ring is a weapon called a 'Karma' that is given to a person when they first get their hands on it, which increases the strength of the weapon that is equipped. The 'Karma' is a creation made by the Goddess of the realm and has an extremely high value. Q: Will there be multiple endings in Elden Ring: The Beginning? We are planning on adding multiple endings in Elden Ring: The Beginning. Q: What kinds of jewels exist in the game? There are diamonds, rubies, emeralds, sapphires, and pearls in Elden Ring: The Beginning. Q: What kind of job quests will there be? We are adding a lot of new quests. There are not only monster-killing quests, but also quests that involve collecting materials and skills. We are also planning to create a new quest that involves defeating a demon. Q: What kind of battles will there be? We have created events and battles that are prepared to lead to the characters interacting with other characters. Q: What kinds of battles are there in the story? bff6bb2d33

I have even thought to get the crack from the wrong site, but as you saw it was wrong and I also uploaded the right one. So, this was just a trick because I have written 2 threads with the same name and only filled them with 0s. I have filled them only with 0 because of the admins. You should have looked at my other 2 topics if you didn't want to read nonsense. And since those 2 threads were not solved, and I had no more chance, I created this one because the topic and the answer is the same, and no one would have answered either of them. Well, I'm sorry if you all were fooled. well, it's been great to finally meet you. You have a terrific team and am very pleased to be working with you.
